How To Guide For E- Sessions

Have an idea of WHERE YOUR PICTURE WILL GO. On your wedding site, Tedge/Mez bottles

Have a THEME or color scheme... Ideally to match your wedding colors

SCOUT A LOCATION for the engagement shoot...where he proposed, where you met are great spots!

Have your OUTFITS PLANNED IN ADVANCE...It's a good idea to have habesha clothes as a par of your wardrobe change

HAVE FUN! You don't want your pictures to come out stiff and posed. Let your PERSONALITIES SHINE

TRADITION MEETS MODERN MELSE

When planning a Melse most brides in the diaspora want traditional elements but also want to stay true to themselves. For the modern Habeshabride, a mix of the two by can be accomplished by incorporating traditional décor like mesobs with modern elements like Habesha artwork.

WINTER MELSE

Silver Bell

QUEEN OF THE WINTER
WONDERLAND

Silver and Red

FOR A MELSE IN THE
WINTER SEASON BREAK AWAY FROM GOLD AND TRY SILVER FOR YOUR
MAIN COLOR WITH BOLD
ACCENTS OF RED.

SHIMMERING SILVER WERKI SETS...STAND OUT

Nothing says winter like silver

Pairing a silver habeshalibs/zuria with a black and silver etching kaba and you will be the bell of the ball.

During your portrait session use petals from the wedding day to mimic snow!
